1. Introduction

TAFE NSW Higher Education students are charged a per subject tuition fee for the subjects they enrol in each semester. Tuition fees for domestic and international students are published annually on the TAFE NSW internet.

2. Purpose

This policy governs the processes in relation to charging TAFE NSW Higher Education tuition fees, access to Commonwealth student loans schemes, and refund and review procedures in accordance with the provisions of relevant Commonwealth legislation, specifically the Higher Education Support Act (HESA) 2003.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all TAFE NSW Higher Education students enrolled in any TAFE NSW Higher Education course or subjects.

4. Policy

TAFE NSW Higher Education's tuition fees are governed by the following principles.

- Courses are offered on a full fee paying basis.
- The tuition fee is levied only for subjects the student is enrolled in each semester.
- Tuition fee liability is incurred after the census date for each semester.
- Domestic students who meet eligibility requirements may use a Commonwealth student loan to pay their tuition fees.
- Domestic students who pay their tuition fees using a Commonwealth student loan may incur a loan fee.
- Students may also incur incidental tuition fees, such as the cost of learning materials, in accordance with the provisions of the HESA Act.
- Domestic students who withdraw from a course or subject may be eligible for a refund or loan remittance, in accordance with the provisions of the HESA Act.
