Have you considered a career in early childhood care and teaching?

The Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth-5) will get you prepared to be an early childhood teacher who can mix theoretical knowledge with practical skills in the workplace.

You will study child development, welfare, ethics, diversity and social justice. These practical units are supported by work experience placements which allow you to use your skills in a real-life environment.

There is a strong, applied learning focus to this industry-recognised degree so, when you graduate, you will be ready to work in a variety of settings including long day care, preschool, child and family services and early intervention services.

HOW DO I COMPLETE THE COURSE?

The Bachelor of Early Childhood Education and Care (Birth-5) requires you to complete 40 subjects and a total of 320 credit points.

The course includes a total of eight work-placement subjects, one each semester. The work placement subjects do not attract tuition fees or credit points, but must be passed in order to complete the degree.

Information is available at: tafensw.edu.au/degrees

HOW IS THE COURSE STRUCTURED?

This structure is the typical study pattern for a full-time student. Elective choice and study pattern is determined by the location.
