Government subsidised training, including Smart and Skilled

WITHDRAWING FROM YOUR STUDIES

Learners who withdraw from a qualification are required to notify their Institute in writing

- If you are withdrawing from your qualification before classes commence and with no attendance or participation in training, you will be eligible for a refund of your Student fee or Concession fee.
- If you are withdrawing from your qualification after classes commence, you may be eligible for a partial refund of your Student fee.
- If you are withdrawing from your studies you will be asked to identify if you are deferring your studies, discontinuing your studies or transferring to another TAFE NSW Institute or Registered Training Provider.

Note 1: Learners are not eligible for refund of incidental fees

DEFERRING OR DISCONTINUING YOUR STUDIES

Learners who withdraw from a qualification after participation in or commencement of studies will be asked to identify if they are deferring their studies or discontinuing their studies.

- Deferring your studies - You have decided to defer your studies, and have identified your proposed return to study within a period up to 12 months from date of receipt of your withdrawal/deferment advice.
The Student fee or Concession fee remains current for your qualification within the period of deferring your studies.
If you do not recommence your studies within the 12 month period, your record will be amended to identify that you have withdrawn and discontinued your studies.
- Discontinuing your studies – You have decided to cease studies in your enrolled qualification, or have not returned to study within 12 months of deferring of your studies.
If you wish to return to complete this qualification, you will be re-assessed against the Smart & Skilled/government subsidised training eligibility and entitlement criteria, current at that time, to determine your Student Fee or eligibility for a Concession fee or fee exemption.
- Discontinuing your studies and transferring to another TAFE NSW Institute or Training Provider

Note 1: When discontinuing your studies you will be provided with a Statement of Attainment Transcript

REFUNDS

Refund or partial refund of the Student fee may be given in the following circumstances:

- You formally advise the campus of your withdrawal, prior to the commencement of classes and/or participation
- You formally advise the campus of your withdrawal after the commencement of classes and /or participation, and the conditions of refund or partial refund of your college/Institute are met.
- You have overpaid the Student fee or concession fee.
- You enrolled in a qualification that has been cancelled by the campus or Institute.
- You have paid the Student fee for the qualification but now receive Youth Allowance or Austudy commencing within two weeks of the date of enrolment or the date of first attendance at class or participation in training (you have an approval letter from Centrelink with a CRN and indicating your date of commencement of benefit).
- You have been granted Credit Transfer for previous study for one or more Units of Competency, after commencement of training/participation.
- You have been granted Recognition for Prior Learning (RPL) for one or more Units of Competency, after commencement of training/participation.
RPL should be discussed with your class teacher and applied for at the commencement of classes/participation. (refer to Enrolment Adjustment – Recognition of Prior Learning application form)

Note 1: Refunds are to be made to the learner, organisation or third party who originally paid the relevant fee.

Note 2: There are no refunds for incidental fees

Note 3: For Credit Card payments. Any payments made by Credit Card may be refunded to the original credit card number only.

LEARNER PRIVACY

Information collected by the New South Wales TAFE Commission during a learner's enrolment and attendance will be used for the purposes of general record administration, identification, communication, state and national reporting, program monitoring, evaluation and surveys.

Learner information will be held securely and disposed of securely when no longer needed.

The information may be disclosed to the Department of Human Services (Centrelink), the Department of Veterans' Affairs, the Department of Education and Training, the Department of Industry and Science, the Department of Immigration and Border Protection, Transport for NSW, NSW Department of Industry, Skills & Regional Development, the Australian Skills Quality Authority, the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency, the Universities Admission Centre, Office of the Board of Studies and the National Centre for Vocational Education Research. In order to meet the requirements of Registered Training Organisations under the Apprenticeships and Traineeships Act 2001, apprentice and trainee information is provided to employers, Australian Apprenticeship Centres and NSW Skills and Industry Policy Division (or the relevant State Training Authority).

While the provision of the information requested on this form is not required by law, it is a requirement of TAFE NSW and your enrolment will not be accepted if it is not provided.

You may correct your personal details by contacting your TAFE NSW campus administration or by using the TAFE NSW Learner Portal.
