

EXPLORE YOUR FUTURE CAREER OPTIONS

HAVE YOU SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETED YEAR 10?

NO

In NSW, you are required to be in full time education or employment until you turn 17. Have a chat with your school career advisor. Possible outcomes could include:

- Negotiating how you can stay at school. Your school may arrange an alternate study option such as:
 - enrolment in another school
 - distance education or alternative school options.
- Applying for a Year 10 equivalency course at TAFE NSW, through your school principal.

Consider a TVET or SBAT course as part of your school program throughout Year 11 and 12.

You can earn a nationally recognised VET qualification and your HSC at the same time.

ARE YOU AGED 17 OR OVER?

NO

In NSW, you are required to be in full time education or employment until you turn 17.

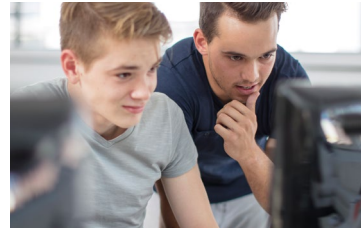

If you have questions, chat with your school's career advisor to discuss your options.

Once you have successfully completed year 10, TAFE NSW offers study options, including:

- the Year 12 equivalent Tertiary Preparation Certificate (TPC)
- apprenticeships and traineeships.

Please discuss these options with your school, as exit criteria is required.
