Student Reservist Support Policy

1. Objectives – Policy Statement
1.1 TAFE NSW supports learners who are members of the Defence Reservists and adopts special provisions to ensure they are not disadvantaged academically or financially as a consequence of participation in Defence Reserve activities.

1.2 The policy aims to provide a framework for special consideration to be granted to learners in Defence Reservists with regard to attendance, enrolment and return to study, availability of study materials and assessment requirements.

2. Audience and Applicability
2.1 TAFE NSW learners who are members of the Defence Reserves.
2.2 TAFE NSW Region staff who manage and provide support to learners who are members of the Defence Reserves.

3. Context
3.1 A learner who is a volunteer member of the Defence Reserve and as such is required to attend one or more compulsory camps of continuous training in a year and occasionally a non-compulsory camp or course, may be granted special consideration with regard to attendance and assessment requirements.

3.2 A learner who's Defence Reserves service commitments impact negatively upon their attendance and assessment performance may apply in writing for special consideration to withdraw from the course without academic penalty (that is, without a grade or fail on their academic record) the learner has been undertaking. Such written request must be submitted before the end of the study period via the TAFE NSW Withdrawal form to the Regional General Manager.

3.3 In the event a learner who is a Defence Reservist is forced to withdraw and discontinue from study in order to undertake full-time service, TAFE NSW will refund the learners student fee in accordance with existing refund guidelines. A formal notification of withdrawal, via the TAFE NSW Withdrawal form, is to be submitted by the Reservist learner.
