

AGED CARE COURSES

Australia has an ageing population, which is increasing demand for Aged Care and related services. Working with older people can be a rewarding, meaningful and important career, as you can be instrumental in improving quality of life. Because of the exciting technological developments and other advances, there are many career options and openings available in the Aged Care industry. It might be a perfect career choice for you - and your first steps could be with TAFE NSW.

“Having teachers who have experience working in the sector means they’re actually able to bring their knowledge from working into the classroom.”
