IS THIS COURSE RIGHT FOR YOU?

This course offering is designed for people who:

The Certificate III in Make-Up will be used predominantly by learners wanting to undertake study in a foundation make-up course. This is an ideal pre-employment course for learners who want to enter the make-up industry. Learners will range from youth to mature aged students. The outcome of the Certificate III in Make-Up SHB30215 qualification is intended to reflect the role of individuals employed as a make-up artist working as part of a team in a make-up studio. This qualification reflects the role of individuals who are competent in interacting with customers, providing a range of make-up services which may include freelance make-up, retail cosmetic counters, fashion and media sets, and photographic studios.

Work would be undertaken in make-up studios, retail outlets and in the wider beauty industry.

Some participants may have completed a part qualification or skill set in Hairdressing or Beauty and/or completed on the job experience and this will permit them to be applicable for recognition of prior learning. The learners with auto credit/RPL will then only be required to attend the face to face sessions of the units they are required to complete to gain the Diploma qualification. Some study may be undertaken by these learners off campus or self-directed. Allowance is made for the needs of particular groups (e.g. people with disabilities, and people who
