COURSE SUCCESS REQUIREMENTS

During your study, you will need to meet specific requirements to complete your coursework. Your teacher will let you know when you need to provide evidence of:

- A valid license or proof of age card, to demonstrate that you are over 18 years of age

This is mandatory for the following electives

- Provide responsible service of alcohol (RSA)
- Provide responsible gambling services (RCG)

If you are under 18 years old, or need support in preparation for study, contact us about your options.

WORK PLACEMENT

Work placement provides you with opportunities to practice responding to situations and circumstances that cannot be replicated in a learning or simulated environment. Work placement strengthens your training and supports continued learning and assessment in the workplace.

During your course you will undertake a mandatory 36 service periods (shifts) of work placement with a suitable industry employer. Some of these service periods are scheduled as part of your course for the observation and assessment of your progress.

The remaining service periods are undertaken through a TAFE NSW approved work placement, through paid work or a combination of both.

LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

The NSW Liquor and Gaming regulations require you to be 18 years of age or older to obtain a competency card that allows you to serve or supply alcohol or work with gaming machines. This qualification may include the following electives with licensing requirements that are regulated by Liquor and Gaming NSW:

- Provide responsible service of alcohol (RSA)
- Provide responsible gambling services (RCG)

If you undertake these electives, you will be issued with an interim RSA or RCG certificate. The interim certificate licenses you to work in the industry immediately and is only valid for a short period while you apply for your permanent competency card through Service NSW.
