Graduates will have the skills to work as an interior designer for interior design and architectural practices, a self-employed design consultant, design project administrator or design manager.

OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Interior Design is a three-year professional degree that prepares graduates for creative employment in the interior design industry in Australia and overseas. You will learn how to create innovative, original concepts for commercial interior design projects, explore the spatial, structural and material elements of built interior environments and develop a comprehensive understanding of the interaction between people and spaces.

You will develop the ability to think critically, work proactively and manage complex design projects from an initial concept through to a successful, detailed resolution. In your final year you will also complete a major project, specialising in an area of your own interest. You will also undertake an internship in a design practice, preparing you to enter the profession with confidence.

This course requires the completion of 24 subjects with full-time students typically enrolling in 4 subjects per semester.
