OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Creative Practice is for specialist creative practitioners who wish to develop strong practical skills in their creative medium. The Bachelor of Creative Practice uses a studio-based learning approach which enables students to use a practice-based learning model to hone their practical skills while at the same time developing sound underpinning knowledge, not only in their artistic discipline, but also in the areas of entrepreneurship and innovation. The course uses a mix of face-to-face learning in a studio setting and facilitated on-line learning. The Bachelor of Creative Practice is a three-year fulltime (part time equivalent) qualification.
