OVERVIEW

Whether you already work in the health services industry and want to move into management, or you are after a new career, the Diploma in Practice Management will provide you with the knowledge and skills necessary to set goals and achieve results for medical practices.

This is a nationally recognised qualification and you will learn how to interact with staff and patients and how to provide care and support for patients, in both the surgery and office contexts. You will also learn about health services and practice management, as well as how to perform office procedures and abide by legal requirements where applicable.

TAFE NSW facilities are state-of-the-art and will give you hands-on, practical skills that will have you ready for a career in medical practice management.

To make it even easier to study at TAFE NSW, we have developed a range of study options for you to choose from. Now you can study online, on campus at one of over 130 locations, part-time or full-time, day or evening and make your study suit you.
