OVERVIEW

If you are working in the beauty industry and looking to make your move into management, the nationally recognised Diploma of Salon Management is the course for you.

You will build on your knowledge and experience in the beauty therapy industry and learn to:

- Hire and manage staff
- Manage business concerns
- Liaise with business stakeholders
- Create a culture that promotes the wider beauty therapy industry.

You will also lead your staff by providing an effective workplace, with the supplies and equipment your staff need to perform outstanding beauty services.

When you study the Diploma of Salon Management you will be learning from professionals who have vast industry experience and strong industry networks. Drawing on their experience and expertise, you will develop the skills you need to run a beauty business profitably and efficiently.

The Diploma of Salon Management can lead to a career as a Salon Manager.
